

Maintenance Technician

Property Advisory Group, Inc. is seeking customer service-oriented maintenance technician.

Responsibilities will include general facilities maintenance, apartment turnovers, painting, light carpentry, building and grounds maintenance as well as basic electrical and plumbing skills along with some HVAC. Successful will have a minimum of one year's experience in facilities management or related field is preferred.

Rotating on call after hour maintenance and snow removal are also requirements of the position.

Successful candidates will work a 40 hour work week with possible overtime, have a valid RI driver's license, own reliable transportation with insurance.

Compensation is commensurate with experience, health coverage with co-pay, vacation, sick and personal time after one year, 401K plan and other benefits.

If you are a motivated individual looking to grow in an established business with over 40 years in the housing industry, please send your resume to: Humanresources@pag-cdg.com