

For Immediate Release – November 9, 2015

Lt. GOVERNOR KARYN POLITO AWARDS PAUL DAVIS RESTORATION BOSTON-SOUTH $25,000 GRANT.

NORTH ATTLEBORO, MA – The Massachusetts Executive Office of Labor & Workforce Development – Department of Industrial Accidents has awarded Paul Davis Restoration of Boston South a $25,000 grant to be used for training. A ceremony will take place on December 2, 2015 at 4:00 p.m. where the Lt. Governor, Secretary of Labor and Workforce Development Ronald Walker, and other state officials will attend.

The Department of Industrial Accidents (DIA) through the Office of Safety has a “Workforce Safety Training and Education Grant Program”. The goal of this program is to promote safe and healthy conditions in the workplace through training, education, and other preventive programs, for employees and employers covered by the Massachusetts Workers ‘Compensation Law, (M.G.L. Ch. 152).

In effort to keep employees safe in the Workplace, Cathy DiPilato has applied for a grant that is based upon the safety conditions Paul Davis may experience. “Safety is the most important thing at our place of employment”, said John Gugliotta, owner of Paul Davis.

The grant was written for safety in a workplace. It includes, OSHA 10 Training, First Aid & CPR Certification, Fire Extinguisher Training, Safety Talks which includes Confined Spaces, Tool Safety & PPE, and Safety Consideration for entering a structure that has been compromised by a fire.

All the Safety Training will take place at Paul Davis Restoration Boston South located at 215 Plain Street, North Attleboro, MA. This state of the art training center recently opened up in August 2015. The training center focusing on Safety Training and Training newly hired Insurance Adjusters.

An open house will take place on December 2 from 2:00 – 8:00 p.m. Paul Davis invites you to visit our facility and welcome the Lt. Governor Karyn Polito at 4:00 p.m.

For additional information about this event you can contact Cathy DiPilato at cdipilato@pauldavis.com, or call 508-688-4595. Food and refreshments will be served.

#

