

NAHMA HUD Update: CNA e-Tool Training for Needs Assessors & Lenders; Register by Sept. 15

Dear NAHMA Members,

Today, HUD announced a series of one-day trainings for the Capital Needs Assessment (CNA) e-Tool to be held across the country.

The Office of Multifamily Housing will be providing 11 training sessions for needs assessors and lenders at HUD offices throughout the country from September through October. These trainings will provide users with hands-on training on the CNA e-Tool and related instructions for performing a capital needs assessment.

The training is intended for lenders and third-party assessors associated with a multifamily housing program. Due to limited seating, each organization will be limited to two individuals per location.

HUD has released the following initial schedule of trainings:

Location	Date
Jacksonville, FL	September 26, 2017
Atlanta, GA	October 3, 2017
San Francisco, CA	October 10, 2017
Baltimore, MD	October 17, 2017
Chicago, IL	October 17, 2017
Denver, CO	October 17, 2017
Kansas City, KS	October 24, 2017
New York, NY	October 24, 2017
Boston, MA	October 31, 2017
Detroit, MI	October 31, 2017
Fort Worth, TX	October 31, 2017

All sessions will be held from 9am – 4:30pm. Due to limited availability, participants are encouraged to register by September 15, 2017. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email once your enrollment has been approved.
