

NAHMA Update: “Deep Energy Retrofit of Buildings” Forum in Washington DC September 15-16

Dear NAHMA Member,

NAHMA recently learned of the upcoming “Deep Energy Retrofit of Buildings” Forum, a summit tailored to provide property owners and managers, engineers, architects, energy performance companies and industry partners with information on the latest technologies and best practices for Deep Energy Retrofit projects.

The forum will be hosted in Washington, D.C. at the National Academy of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine (2101 Constitution Ave., N.W.) on September 15-16, 2016. NAHMA members are welcome to attend this forum.

Organizers of this event include:

- The Federal Facilities Council of the National Academies of Sciences;
- The International Energy Agency EBC Program Annex 61;
- U.S. Army Corps of Engineers;
- U.S. General Services Administration;
- The American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers, and;
- The U.S. Department of Energy

More information on this forum may be found in the attached bulletin.
