

NAHMA Analysis - 115th Congress: Who to Contact for Affordable Housing

Dear NAHMA Members,
Today, we published a new NAHMA Analysis:

115th Congress: Who to Contact for Affordable Housing Policy

The 115th Congress will convene from January 3, 2017 to January 3, 2019. The House of Representatives (House) will consist of 241 Republicans and 194 Democrats, while the Senate has 52 Republicans and 48 Democratic caucus members. NAHMA's mission is to advocate to Congress for the production and preservation of affordable multifamily housing. NAHMA welcomes the opportunity to work with all interested members of Congress to achieve these goals.

As NAHMA reaches out to the 115th Congress on affordable housing issues, we recommend our members do the same. This NAHMA Analysis is a simple primer on the key Congressional members and committees that really matter for affordable housing policies before the 115th Congress.

Today, we also published a grassroots alert encouraging NAHMA members to advocate for full funding for affordable housing programs.

Thanks,
Juliana
